Edinburgh Reserve_Open Space Case Study

1) Public Art to generate interest and engagement
2) Seating placed under shelters as well as natural shade to encourage social interaction
3) Bins and other street furniture placed off of pathways
4) Clear straight pathways with no obstructions
5) Cement pad to allow for wheelchair access to seating
6) Seating/tables and BBQ with inclusive access
7) Installation of vandal and weather resistant furniture