

2024 Community Survey Overview

65%

SA Council satisfaction benchmark

53%

National council satisfaction benchmark

Those who had used or attended a Council service, program or event significantly more likely to be satisfied with Council.

Life in the City of Tea Tree Gully

95%

agree it's a good place to raise a family (unchanged from 2022)

88%

agree it's a good place to grow old (unchanged from 2022)

78%

agree they feel safe in parks and public spaces (↓ from 86% in 2022)

76%

agree that diversity is welcomed and celebrated (↑ from 75% in 2022)

Personal Wellbeing

75.8

Our community wellbeing score

75.2

National wellbeing score*

Our community wellbeing score declined in 2024. It is now only slightly higher than the national score.

There is higher satisfaction with wellbeing for those in our community who:

- Are aged 60+
- Can travel around the City with ease

Key changes from 2022:

Standard of living
62% (↓7%)

Personal safety
72% (↓5%)

Highest wellbeing area:
Personal safety: 72%

Lowest wellbeing area:
Community connectedness: 53%

* Australian Unity Wellbeing Index Report 40.0 School of Psychology, Deakin University, Australian Centre on Quality of Life (June 2023)

Physical activity

42%

Participated in recent physical activity (in last week) (↑ from 38% in 2022)

27%

Of physical activity in the last 12 months was organised club or group activities, all in the City of Tea Tree Gully area (↑ from 23% in 2022)

Recent physical activity linked to higher levels of satisfaction with:

- ♥ Life as a whole
- ♥ Achieving in life
- ♥ Relationships