Public Service Medal – Australia Day Honours 2023

Public Service Medal – Australia Day Honours 2023

5th July 2022

Nominations are open for the Public Service Medal - Australia Day Honours 2023

The Public Service Medal is a prestigious, internationally recognised award within the national system of Australian Honours and Awards. It is awarded twice-yearly by the Governor-General.

The Medal is designed to recognise outstanding public service which includes service above and beyond the normal requirements of the position, a special achievement or success in the performance of duty in difficult or unusual circumstances, or sustained high-level performance by an individual with a focus on outcomes and recognisable benefits to clients and the workplace. An individual's age, length of service or classification level should not be used as a basis for making nominations.

All local, State and Commonwealth Government public sector employees can be nominated, unless they are eligible for other comparable awards such as the Australian Police Service Medal or the Australian Fire Service Medal.

Details on how to nominate can be found on the Department of the Premier and Cabinet website.

Nominations must be received by close of business on Tuesday 9 August 2022.
