Australian of the Year Awards - nominations now open

10th June 2021

Nominations for the 2022 Australian of the Year Awards are now open.

We're looking for people who are great at what they do, contribute to Australian society and inspire those around them. They could be quiet achievers, community members, leaders in their field of work, household names or unknown heroes.

We are reaching out to our valued communities that can identify and nominate Australians that are doing outstanding things. The Awards rely on members of the public to nominate and we encourage you, through your networks, to identify and put some of your best and brightest forward for the 2022 Awards.

Your nominee(s) can be recognised in one of our four categories:

- Australian of the Year: Celebrating the achievements and contributions of eminent Australians who are role models for us all.
- Senior Australian of the Year: Recognising those Australians aged 65 and over who continue to achieve and make a difference.
- Young Australian of the Year: Celebrating inspiring 16 to 30 year olds who have accomplished things in all walks of life.
- Australia's Local Hero: Established in 1999, Australia's Local Hero acknowledges people making a difference in their local community.

Nominating someone is easy to do - visit australianoftheyear.org.au by Friday 30 July 2021 and tell us who they are, what they've achieved and why you'd like to see them recognised.

If you need assistance or have any questions you can contact the Australia Day Council of South Australia team via adcsa@adcsa.com.au.
