SA Local Government Financial Management Group - AGM & Conference

13th August 2021

The SALGFMG's AGM and Conference 'It's a Jungle Out There' is being held on 2 September 2021 at the Adelaide Zoo Sanctuary.

The conference will include a keynote presentation from Bernard Salt. Bernard Salt is the man leading property investors, businesses and governments turn to when they need to understand future trends and demographics. A former partner at KPMG, Bernard specialises in the business implications of demographic and social change. He is a columnist with The Australian newspaper. Over an outstanding career, he has established an enviable reputation with his acute understanding of market forces. An entertaining and persuasive speaker, he has been successfully guiding high-end business for more than a decade.

The program includes the following sessions:

- LGA Update – Benchmarking and LG Reform
- Panel Session – Long Term Financial Plan
- Climate Assessment – the Finance Component – What can Councils do?
- Keynote Presentation: What's Driving South Australia's Housing Boom?
- Transformation of the Adelaide Zoo
- SALGFMG Annual General Meeting
