

Go.See.Play trail #1 River Torrens Linear Park and Highbury Aquaduct Reserve

The City of Tea Tree Gully is a wonderful place to be active outdoors.

Walk, run or ride this scenic route along River Torrens Linear Park, Highbury. You'll enjoy majestic views of the rolling hills and waterways and glimpses of the local wildlife along this popular path.

There are plenty of spots to relax amongst the trees and take in the scenery or perhaps enjoy a picnic.

Other features of this route include historical points of interest such as the old quarry and Athelstone House.

Increase your journey by extending the route towards Adelaide CBD, or return via the Highbury Aquaduct Reserve accessed from Linear Park for a change of landscape and terrain (see dotted line on the map above).

Suitable for: Walking, running, riding

Start & end: The Promenade, Highbury

Turning point: Gallery Road, Highbury

Distance: 5km return

Difficulty: Easy/Moderate – A few significant hills

