Renowned pop sensation Paulini to grace Civic Park Carols 2023 stage

Prepare for a night of festive cheer and harmonious melodies as we proudly announce the sensational Paulini as the guest star for Civic Park Carols on Sunday 17 December.

ARIA award-winner and chart topper Paulini's illustrious career has spanned Australian Idol, Young Divas, multiple solo albums, and acclaimed roles in musical theatre. Her remarkable five-octave vocal range and magnetic stage presence promises to captivate and mesmerise the audience at this year's Civic Park Carols, a much-anticipated event in the City of Tea Tree Gully.

Speaking about her involvement, Paulini enthused: "I'm absolutely thrilled to be the guest vocalist at this year's Civic Park Carols! It's going to be an incredible event, and I can't wait to share this special evening with all of my South Australian fans."

Festivities will start at 5pm at the picturesque Civic Park in Modbury with a community pre-show, leading up to the main event that kicks off at 7:30pm and ends with a dazzling fireworks display.

"Civic Park Carols stands as a premier event of its kind in Australia, cherished as a much-loved tradition by many of our community," said City of Tea Tree Gully Mayor, Marijka Ryan. "It offers an opportunity to come together with family and friends as we start the festive season. This year, we welcome the talented Paulini, ensuring an unforgettable and magical event for all."

The event will also be livestreamed from Waterworld Aquatic Centre in nearby Ridgehaven, so more people can sing along and join in on the fun.

Civic Park Carols 2023 is proud to partner with Westfield, Channel 9 and Solo to bring the community this spectacular celebration.

Don't miss the chance to be part of a night filled with music, joy, and community spirit at Civic Park Carols 2023. Mark your calendars for an unforgettable evening of festive cheer.
