Minister for Health and Wellbeing Excellence in Public Health Awards

30th September 2021

The Minister for Health and Wellbeing Excellence in Public Health Awards finalists for 2021 have been announced – reflecting the diverse mix of initiatives and teams across metropolitan and regional councils.

Our thanks go to all the councils that submitted an initiative for this year's award. Each application reflects valued public health action in local councils and your communities, and each help us to celebrate these endeavours.

The 2021 finalists are:

Metropolitan category

- > City of Salisbury - From Big Things Positive Things Grow – Adaptive Program Delivery in a Changing World
- > City of Burnside – The Shed Programs

Regional category

- > Southern & Hills Local Government Association – Community Wellbeing Indicators for Local Government
- > Wudinna District Council
 - Game On Wudinna! Eyre Peninsula Regional Games
 - Wudinna Anex Park – Integrated Recreation and Sports Activity Zone

- Wadina Apex Park - Integrated recreation and sports activity zone.

Winners and highly commended councils will be announced by the Minister for Health and Wellbeing at the awards ceremony on Friday 29 October, as part of the LGA Conference and Annual General Meeting (AGM).
