LGA Training - EM Forum #3 Leadership

11th November 2021

Join LGA Training for the final Elected Member forum for the year - themed 'Lessons for the Future'.

Don't miss out on the final Elected Member Forum for the year.

Being a leader is a lifelong learning process and proactive leaders are always on the lookout for ways to improve their leadership qualities and attributes.

This face to face session held at LG House will be an opportunity to unpack the lessons learnt from your leadership role on council, consider your role in context of the new local government reforms and network with other Elected Members from across the state.

With other elected members from across the state.

Scheduled for Wednesday 24 November (LG House)
