The updated Voters Roll Practice Manual is now available for use for the 2022 council elections

4th January 2022

The manual has been prepared to provide guidance on the key steps in producing an accurate voters roll and preparing for an election.

The manual provides advice on the statutory requirements of councils under the Local Government (Elections) Act 1999 and supporting regulations. The 2021 Voters Roll Practice Manual encompasses all updates to legislation since the 2018 elections.

The Manual has been produced by Revenue Professionals SA in collaboration with the Local Government Association of SA, the Electoral Commission SA and Kelledy Jones Lawyers. The manual is available through the LGA research library website
